SPEAKER

Lance D. Like

Lance D. Like is a Bloomington, Indiana attorney, has been Board Certified as an Estate Planning and Administration Specialist and is an Accredited Attorney with the Veteran's Administration. Lance has extensive experience in the areas of estate and wealth transfer planning, asset protection planning, elder law, Medicaid planning, long-term care planning, probate and trust administration, business succession planning, business formation and operation, and real estate. In his estate, wealth transfer planning, and elder law representation, Lance works closely with individuals and families to craft comprehensive and customized plans. These plans have helped hundreds of clients and their families address life issues, deal with death, resolve conflict, and leave a legacy.
